Guidance notes

This form supports, but does not replace, professional judgement or your firm procedures.

Suggested use

- Complete the review at the frequency set by the client risk assessment and whenever a trigger event occurs.
- Update identity, beneficial ownership, purpose and activity information where it is no longer current or where circumstances have changed.
- Use enhanced due diligence and enhanced ongoing monitoring where higher-risk circumstances apply.
- If information is missing or inconsistent, record the action taken and do not mark the review complete until it is resolved.
- Any suspicion should be handled under the practice reporting procedure. Do not record unnecessary sensitive detail in a client-facing document.
- Retain the completed form and supporting evidence in accordance with applicable legal, supervisory and firm requirements.

Important

This template is a suggested working paper and is not legal or regulatory advice. Adapt it to your supervisory body guidance, firm-wide risk assessment, policies, controls and procedures, and the facts of the client relationship.
